Batterjee Medical College Students Clubs & Societies

Batterjee Medical College (BMC) has more than 50 student-run clubs, societies, and groups, that cover broad spectra of student's activities and interactions including social responsibility and community service clubs, cultural awareness groups, performing groups, sports and games clubs, spiritual groups, Entrepreneurship, Skills Development, student leadership and activism, student publications. In addition, student clubs' activities provide opportunity to various club members/students from different programs to promote awareness services and social and environmental campaigns to the public.

Number	Club Name	Goals / Activities
1	Influencer Club	The Influencers club stands by the idea of speech, motivation, and inspiration by students, for students. The most effective way to share an experience and receive it is when it's shared by students, to students. The club run many activities as Influencers got voices, Speech competition and Debate session.
2	Entrepreneurship Club	Train, develop and support future entrepreneurs, regardless of whether they are planning to start their own business, joining the Entrepreneurship Club can help to develop and build an entrepreneurial and innovative mindset as well as a solid network.
3	Toastmasters Club	Toastmasters club teaches students public speaking, presentation, and leadership skills. The club is dedicated to the development of public speaking and leadership abilities of students, especially with the fact that leadership and speaking skills are one of the most important skills to acquire in the healthcare field. As the club's primary purpose is to create competent public speakers and future leaders and as part of its activities, the Toastmasters Club holds frequent meetings where members can converse and make public speeches. The club also organizes workshops and competitions focusing on public speaking and presentation skills.
4	Active Minds Club	Active Minds club empowers students to speak openly about mental health to educate others and encourage help-seeking. Active Minds Club is changing the culture on campuses and in the community by providing information, leadership opportunities and advocacy training to the next generation.
5	Skills Development Club	The Skills Development Club is created to offer endless opportunities to build students experience, learn new skills and explore new life. The club Provides exciting unique opportunities for group students' enjoyment and skills building including time management, improving the student's experience through their university journey, etc.

ص.ب ٦٢٣١ - جدة ٢١٤٤٢ - المملكة العربية السعودية
P.O. Box 6231 Jeddah 21442 Kingdom of Saudi Arabia,
T. 9200 33923 - F. +966 12 656 2415
CR. 4030154905 JCCI. 108102
info@bmc.edu.sa, www.bmc.edu.sa

Number	Club Name	Goals / Activities
6	Debate Club	The Debate Club is a place where like-minded peers can congregate to exchange ideas on critical issues and hone their oral skills, the club is a popular choice among students seeking to improve themselves and boost their resume. Joining the Debate Club will give the students the opportunity to work on their research, oratory and critical thinking skills.
7	Art Club	The Art Club is an organization for students interested in any kind of art. It emphasizes the importance of art in our community and encourages the development of creativity by working and collaborating as a team to create masterpieces which could be related ds or unrelated to medical field. Activities: (Rehab walkaway painting project, Art History - House of Medicine, Watercolors painting webinar, etc.)
8	Theatre Club	The Theatre Club is not just for aspiring actors. The Theatre Club is also a great creative outlet. Typically, in charge of organizing student-led theatre productions, the club is a safe space for students to explore their creativity while learning event management skills.
9	Stand-Up Club	Stand-Up Club is a standup comedy writing and performing collective. The club host a variety of writing sessions and open mics. Stand-Up Club encourage students who have never been given the opportunity to try stand-up to go out of their comfort zone and work on developing material that can be shared in a safe, supportive environment.
10	Shakespeare Club	Shakespeare Club is a space for people to share an enthusiasm for Shakespeare and other classical theatre. The club members celebrate these works through productions, workshops, and other events.
11	Guitar Club	The Guitar Club is a group of guitar lovers the club offers beginner and intermediate guitar lessons with an experienced instructor and organizes jam sessions for students of all skill levels.
12	Basketball Club	The basketball club serves to give students an opportunity to enjoy the game of basketball in a competitive and enjoyable atmosphere. It is designed to allow students to take full benefit without the commitment of playing on a team. Club commitments consist of weekly practices and games against local schools. Membership is available to all students. No prior basketball experience is required.
13	Boxing Club	Boxing Club introduce and train students in the sport of boxing. The club can offer two practices a week, also offer a beginner's practice.
14	Running Club	Running Club is a group of runners who train for and compete in a variety of cross country, track, and road races. The club consist of and welcome all ability levels. The club range from new runners learning the ropes of the sport for the first time to the seasoned athletes who are always in pursuit of faster times. There are groups set out on a variety of different runs or workouts varying in length and pace depending on the ability level of each group and the schedule. In addition to daily practices, the club hold special social events, community service opportunities, and races.
15	Cycling Club	The club is the place for both recreational and competitive cyclists riding on and off road. It is a supportive community and a great place to meet others who simply love to ride and socialize. The club welcome all skill levels. The club host rides each day which vary from beginner to advanced and open to all students and staff. The club participate in and host social events for members interested in recreational cycling and are happy to provide resources to members who wish to race collegiately.

Number	Club Name	Goals / Activities
16	Volleyball Club	This club is allowing BMC students of all levels of experience to have the opportunity to play volleyball. The club offer introductory and advanced training skills for students as well as organize competitions between students' teams. and the BMC selected volleyball team engages in competitive intercollegiate play with other local colleges.
17	Tennis Club	Tennis Club is a student-run club committed to provide the BMC students the basics to play tennis regardless of skill level. Interested members also can play in matches with other local club teams.
18	Football Club	The BMC Football Club encourages students who have passion in this sport to get enthusiastic by competing and to practice the sport they like the most and to introduce this sport to the other students. The club schedules competitions among different majors at the BMC. Also, The Club forms a competitive soccer team for competition with other local colleges and universities.
19	Table Tennis Club	Table Tennis Club is for anyone interested in playing Table Tennis. The level of expertise in playing Table Tennis is not important - the club is for everyone interested in this sport
20	Athletics Club	The athletics club aims to improve the students' performance in running and joining competitions with other colleges. The club also arrange scheduled training sessions with specialized coaches.
21	Badminton Club	The Badminton club promotes badminton as a sport by holding regular practices, organizing competitions and tournaments, and by participating in external badminton tournaments. The club also encourages students to participate and represent BMC at different platforms.
22	e-Sports Club	BMC e-Sports club promotes competitive eSports by helping players find teams, coaches, and resources.
23	Console Gamers Club	Console Gamers Club is a group of video gamers that meet to socialize and play multiplayer console games.
24	Virtual Reality Club	Virtual Reality and Game Development Club focuses on driving its members' exploration of VR applications and game design. To this end, it maintains a growing list of resources, including hardware (Oculus Rifts, HTC Vives, Google Cardboards, + many more), software (finished games, Unity assets and licenses, links to other tools), and informative tutorials.
25	Chess Club	Chess Club is a space on BMC campus that allows students of all experience levels to join and enjoy themselves by learning how to play and strategies in chess, challenging other club members to Chess games and/or analyzing games, openings, tactics and other strategies with one another to improve their skillset. Chess Club can participate in local tournaments.

Number	Club Name	Goals / Activities
26	Automotive Performance Club	The Automotive Performance club is an association for people with a wide variety of automotive interests. We welcome enthusiasts of all makes and forms of motorsports. Weekly meetings feature members presenting on interesting topics from all over the automotive world. We also organize events for the club covering an assortment of automotive activities.
27	Veg Club	Veg Club aims to reduce meat consumption. The club organizes educational events and activism aimed at raising awareness for encouraging plant-based eating. The club also serves as a supportive community and a source of delicious vegan food for anybody exploring or committed to plant-based diets.
28	Premedical Student Association	This club is geared toward cultivating a community among students interested in the expansive and multifaceted field of healthcare. The club helps students to choose the right program and field as premedical students. The association places an emphasis on building a community to promote academic, personal and professional success. It also promotes healthy living for students on campus and knowledge regarding the healthcare industry both globally and domestically.
29	Medical Student Association	The Medical Student Association represents and advocates for the medical students, and is centered around their interests, needs and concerns. The club aims to assist and guide the students throughout their studies at the college, thereby acting as a tool to aid in every student's academic and non-academic development.
30	Cancer Society	BMC Cancer Society aims to promote cancer awareness among the BMC community as well as local community based on American Cancer Society standards through activities and events through meeting, social gathering invite speakers that work with cancer research, oncology, cancer advocacy or cancer survivors to speak about their experiences with cancer. The club also hold other cancer awareness events throughout the school year featuring cancer physician-scientists and cancer researchers and volunteer outreach trips to hospitals and oncology centers as well as shopping malls and schools.
31	Pre-Dental Society	This society is dedicated for pre-dental students at BMC to engage with one another to learn more about dental requirements and opportunities. The society create events that are helpful to work on manual dexterity and overall skills a dentist should have. Also, it provide resources and support for students at BMC with dentistry program.
32	Pre-Health Society	Pre-Health Society hosts a variety of events to support and engage with students interested in pursuing careers in the pre-health fields. BMC Pre-Health Society aims to support and engage members of the student body that are passionate about careers in the pre-health field through various advising, programming, and networking events.

Number	Club Name	Goals / Activities
33	English Club	The English club Helps students to learn how to use English in casual settings. Students will practice various skills that help them speak in real life situations. Being an English Club member necessitates speaking more clearly and listening more carefully; as a result, it will enhance communication skills. Students will also feel more comfortable using English around people they trust , and will expand their circle to people other than those in their class.
34	Fashion Design Club	Fashion Design Club aims to act as a resource for anyone interested in fashion and/or fashion design on campus. The club's goal is to educate students and share ideas in fashion design, patternmaking, garment construction, and show production. Although fashion design encompasses a large variety of disciplines, the club is not participating in activities related to knitting or construct any garments for individuals. The club helps students who interested in fashion and those who design clothing as a hobby and the club members will be able to gain experience in fashion design by working with each other.
35	Islamic Youth Club	The Islamic Youth Club aims to provide a platform where students get inspiration from the Quran and Sunnah for their daily life.
36	Nazaha Club	The main objective of Nazaha club is to promote integrity and transparency and fight all forms of corruption in the administrative and financial domains. The club run many activities including statutory provisions to protect integrity and combat corruption, intellectual Security in the Qur'an and the Sunnah and medical Integrity
37	Pharmacy Club	The Pharmacy Club aims to educate pharmacy students scientifically, intellectually and culturally, so they can compete peers in their role and responsibilities by creating a pharmacist who is creative in profession, influential in community, and aware of the pharmacy career.
38	Student Research Club	The research club provides an environment for students where they can explore scientific research ideas. Students gain research skills such as reading scientific articles or designing controlled experiments and publishing their work in scientific journals under the supervision of professors in the college.
39	Al Fursan Club	Alforsan Club is an opportunity to exchange expertise, create a sustainable community of learners in which knowledge is learned and practiced successfully, and contribute to the intellectual and practical growth of previous and current Alforsan members. The goal of the Alforsan Club is to serve the BMC community. The expertise, skills, knowledge, and experiences of former Alforsan members are invaluable sources of inspiration and creativity and their achievements symbolize years of dedication and hard work. Likewise, Alforsan's current students strive and are actively engaged in developing their expertise and knowledge to grow as students and future healthcare providers. While providing adequate monitoring and coordination, this Club is established to create new opportunities for intellectual growth and practical development, not only to Alforsan's former and current members, but also the general BMC student's community.

Number	Club Name	Goals / Activities
40	Women empowerment Club	The Women empowerment Club intends to enhance women empowerment. It addresses the issues women still face to this day because of their gender and encourages women inside and outside BMC through various activities.
41	Media Club	The Media Club aims to promote the university's image via various social channels. Students in the club will be the main channels to share stories, photos, videos and articles which would cover programs, events and celebrations around the university. In this club the students can participate in the media production process by joining the campus media and/or the campus online newspaper. The club run many activities including (Best culture photo competition; Share your student life experience webinar; Looking for the balance between med school and life Webinar; Photography Competition at Jeddah Historical Town Trip)
42	Platinum Step Team	Platinum is a co-ed step team on BMC campus. It is made up of individuals from all over with different passions in life. One passion that they share is their love for step. Step is a form of dance where one uses their body as an instrument to create beats that don't drop. They build off of each other's energy to create an amazing sound.
43	Library Club	The library club is a cultural and educational hub that focuses on discussing different areas of knowledge and science. It aims to help members acquire new skills and earn real life experience through its activities. Joining the Library Club will help students improve their self-knowledge, academic knowledge, occupational knowledge and decision-making knowledge.
44	Volunteering Club	The Volunteering Club motivates students of medical specialties to participate and volunteer in various medical and non-medical campaigns to inculcate the value of giving and volunteering
45	Innovation and Creativity Club	Innovation and creativity club encourages and supports all students those who wish to explore and grow their creative ideas through funding, classes, workshops, and mentoring, as well as specialized work areas for ideation and collaboration.
46	Adapted Toys for Children Club	Adapted Toys for Children club is dedicated to modifying toys for children with disabilities. The club works one on one with families of these children, providing observational research and personal connections that aid the process of redesigning donated toys for these children to play with.
47	Anxiety Support Club	Anxiety Support Club aims to cultivate a community for students struggling with anxiety and related afflictions. Students will have the opportunity to learn and practice anxiety relief exercises and coping skills, meet like-minded friends, and hear from relevant speakers on the topics of anxiety and mental illness.
48	Pets Lovers Club	Pets Lovers Club is a group with a shared passion for pets. The main purpose of the club is to connect students, who appreciate or are involved in this community while otherwise having a space for those who wish to become involved. This organization will serve as a safe environment for the formation of these connections and as a place to hold activities related to the pets' lovers. The club prides itself as a place where all are welcome. The club hold inclusivity, diversity, and creativity as its core values.

Number	Club Name	Goals / Activities
49	Green Initiative Club	Green Initiative club is focused on sustainability from a variety of disciplines. Whether students are an expert in sustainability or not but just eager to learn. The club currently has 2 project committees under the umbrella of BMC green initiative. They are Recycling and Water Management. Green Initiative is a fun and active club in which the members build strong relationships and leave a lasting impact on BMC and the community.
50	BMC Society for International Affairs	The BMC Society for International Affairs is a social society dedicated to providing students interested in public, global, and international affairs a platform to both learn about and discuss current events among their peers.
51	Multicultural Club	The Multicultural Club is designed is designed to bring together people from various Cutlers through fun and purposeful activities, embracing other cultures through events and learning to love the diversity All under the roof of BMC. The club run many activities including: - Henna day -Medicinal benefits, henna from various cultures, and apply henna. - Squid Game- Cultural games day - Weekly language sessions Multicultural orientation
52	African Students' Club	The African Students' Club is a sociocultural and educational student club to establish mutual understanding, promote culture and stronger ties with various students. In addition to introduce African diverse culture to the BMC community through many culture and social events and learn from the native culture(s).